COACHING STAFF

Terry Hall Head Coach Sixth Year

Since being named as the third women's basketball coach in Raider history in 1990, head coach Terry Hall has been able to turn the program into her style of basketball. Hall has proven her knowledge of how to direct a winner as she has won 275 games in her 18-year collegiate coaching career.

Hall began her coaching career at Butler High School in Louisville in 1969. She compiled a record of 68-32 and won two Jefferson County Championships while there. She also taught health and physical education classes while at Butler.

Her collegiate coaching career began as the interim head coach at Eastern Kentucky during the 1974-75 season, where she guided the Colonels to a 14-6 record and the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference championship. Hall also taught physical education activities classes while at EKU.

The next season, Hall was named the first full-time women's basketball coach at Louisville. Her Cardinal teams finished .500 or better in each of her five seasons, including a 18-9 record in 1977-78. In Hall's only .500 season in Louisville (17-17 in 1979-80), the team claimed the Metro Conference championship. In five years there, Hall compiled a 79-54 (.598) mark. Hall also served as head coach of the softball and women's tennis teams during her Louisville tenure.

When the 1980-81 season started, Hall found herself as the head coach of another school in the Bluegrass state—the University of Kentucky. In seven years with the Lady Kats, Hall posted an impressive 138-66 (.676) record. Her first Kentucky team posted a 25-6 record, finished 11th in the Associated Press Final Poll and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the AIAW National Tournament. The 1981-82 squad went 24-8 overall, won the Southeastern Conference title, finished 13th in the AP poll and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. The team advanced to the Midwest Regional final before falling to eventual champion Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techsters' home floor. Kentucky had its first All-American selection after that season as Valerie Still was named to that honor.

The Lady Kats posted another 20-win season at 23-5 in the 1982-83 campaign and was 12th in the AP final poll that season as Still was again named All-American. The 1983-84 team finished the season as the top foul shooting team in Division I at 78.8 percent, a mark that stands as the third best all-time in Division I. Three of Hall's Kentucky teams (1981, 1982, 1983, 1986) made either the AIAW or NCAA Tournament and posted an overall 5-5 record in tournament games. During Hall's tenure at Kentucky, like her teams at Eastern Kentucky and Louisville, no team finished below .500 in a season.

Besides her on-the-court responsibilities, Hall was also busy off the court at UK. She served on the Champion Player of the Year Committee, the Kodak Women's All-American Selection Committee, the Sport Committee for SEC Women's Basketball, and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) Division I Legislative Committee, was a national speaker/clinician for Converse and hosted a weekly television coaching show from 1981-87. She also became a member of the WBCA in 1983, a membership she still holds today.

During her three-year hiatus from coaching, Hall ran her own basketball scouting service and worked as a stockbroker in Lexington, Kentucky. She then returned to coaching as she was named the third women's basketball coach in Wright State history on April 20, 1990.

In her five seasons at Wright State, Hall has added to her list of accomplishments. She was named the North Star Conference coach of the year after the 1991-92 season. During the 1992-93 season, she picked up her 250th collegiate win with a 70-59 decision at Indiana State. Last season, she won her 275th game as the Raiders defeated Detroit to close the regular season. The milestones will continue this season as Wright State's contest with Cincinnati on December 13 will be Hall's 500th game as a collegiate head coach.

Hall earned a bachelor of science in physical education, health and recreation in 1966 from Indiana State University while playing basketball, field hockey and volleyball there. In 1965, she received the "I" Woman Award from ISU and in 1966, she was honored with the prestigious Hillman Award as the most outstanding female athlete at the university. Hall completed her master's degree in education/physical education from Eastern Kentucky in 1975.

A native of Salem, Indiana, Hall continues to have strong ties to that area as her parents, Henry and Lucille Hall, and sister, Judy Hall, still reside in Salem. Her other sister, Mardee McNay, lives in nearby Columbus, Indiana.

Lisa Fitch

Associate Head Coach Third Year

Lisa Fitch is in her second season as associate head coach for the women's basketball program after serving as an assistant coach during the 1993-94 season. Fitch came aboard in September 1993 after serving as the head coach of the University of Akron the previous four seasons.

A 1981 graduate of Ohio University with a bachelor's degree in economics, Fitch was a four-year letterwinner in basketball for the Bobcats as a point guard. She also earned her master's degree in sports administration at Ohio in 1982.

Fitch began her coaching career at Walsh College in 1984 where she was the head women's basketball coach for two years, compiling a 29-19 record. In 1988-89, the Cavaliers captured first place in the Mid-Ohio Conference with a 9-1 mark and were ranked fifth in the NAIA District 22. As a result, Fitch was named as the Mid-Ohio Conference's Coach of the Year.

Fitch was also the softball coach for five seasons at Walsh and was 56-33 during that time. Her squads captured back-to-back Greater Ohio Athletic Conference titles while advancing to the NAIA District 22 postseason playoffs.

Lisa is the daughter of Bill Fitch, who was the head coach of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers, Boston Celtics, Houston Rockets and New Jersey Nets and is currently the head coach of the Los Angeles Clippers. His 862 NBA victories are currently fifth on the all-time list. Her mother, Margaret, resides in Medina, Ohio.

Fitch assists with the overall administration of the program from recruiting and scouting to day-to-day practice and office organization.

"Coach Fitch has done an outstanding job for us the past couple of years! Having her on the staff is like having two head coaches in the program."

—Terry Hall

Kathy Warner

Assistant Coach Second Year

Kathy Warner is in her second season on the Raider coaching staff after serving as an assistant coach for Furman University for two years prior to coming to Wright State.

During her two years with Furman, she was involved in many facets of coaching, including conditioning, recruiting, scouting and camps—duties she is involved with here at Wright State. She earned a master's degree in education with a concentration in health and exercise science from the school in June 1994.

Warner received her bachelor's degree in English in 1992 from Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida. A four-year starter at point guard for Rollins, Warner set game, season and career assist records there, and her 576 career assists in 116 games rank her 15th all-time in Division II. She was also awarded the Algernon Sidney Sullivan Award while at Rollins, which is given for character and leadership both on and off the court.

Lori Collins

Assistant Coach First Year

Lori Collins, after an outstanding career for Wright State that ended last season, returns this season as an assistant coach. She will assist the coaching staff with conditioning, practices and game strategy.

Collins finished as the top all-time rebounder in Raider women's basketball history with 897 and was second in minutes played with 3301 and in foul shots attempted with 428. She also finished fifth in scoring with 1108 points and ranks in the Wright State Top Ten in games played, field goals made and attempted, three pointers made and attempted, foul shots made and attempted, rebound average, assists and steals. Collins also is the only Raider basketball player, men's or women's, to ever lead the team in rebounding in all four years played.

Collins, who recorded 25 double-doubles (double figures in points and rebounds in the same game) in her career, is a native of Louisville, Kentucky, and graduated with a degree in biological sciences last June. She is pursuing a master's degree in anatomy at Wright State.

Jennifer Beardslee

Athletic Trainer Second Year

Jennifer Beardslee is in her second year as the trainer for the women's basketball team. Beardslee came to Wright State from the University of Missouri where she was a student trainer for two years.

While at Missouri, Beardslee was involved with several sports, including volleyball, men's and women's track, women's basketball and football. She was the recipient of the Fred Wappel Outstanding Student Trainer Award as a senior.

A native of St. Louis, Beardslee works with all 14 sports at Wright State and supervises the staff of student trainers as well as performs office duties. She is also pursuing a master's degree in health and physical education at Wright State.

OUTLOOK

The Wright State women's basketball team has been on the rise the last few years, winning 23 games the past two seasons after winning a total of 24 games the previous four. Head coach Terry Hall and her team hope to continue the trend and build upon a 11-16 overall record and a 5-11 MCC ledger in 1994-95.

"I am excited about the potential for this season," said Hall, who is entering her sixth season as Wright State's head coach. "While we will be young with only three seniors and six freshmen, we will be competitive and exciting on the court."

Two starters and six letterwinners overall return for Wright State this season, led by senior forward Timothea Clemmer, the Midwestern Collegiate Conference's Newcomer of the Year last season. Clemmer led the Raiders in scoring last season at 15 points per game and was the leading scorer in 12 games, including in each of the five straight wins the Raiders had in December. In fact, WSU was 9-3 when Clemmer led the way in scoring last season. The second leading rebounder for Wright State in 1994-95, the Niles, Michigan native led the squad on the boards 12 times last year. She has the top scoring average of any returning player in the MCC this season and is second in rebounding, averaging 7.9 boards per game.

The other returning starter from last season is senior point guard Anita Jurcenko, who made 21 starts last season. Jurcenko averaged 5.6 points and 2.8 rebounds per game in 1994-95 and was third on the team in steals with 53.

Another returning senior is center Heidi Beal. Beal started five games last season while averaging 2.0 points and 2.5 rebounds per game. She shot 45 percent from the field and led the team in blocked shots with eight.

One of two returning juniors on this year's squad is guard Lori Blanchard. After scoring just eight points as a freshman, Blanchard doubled that total at Marshall in December when she scored 16 points, which included five three pointers. Blanchard finished her sophomore year with a 2.7 scoring average and shot better from beyond the three-point arc (30.6 percent) than from within (27.6 percent).

Michele Dalbey

Junior center Michele Dalbey also returns after averaging four points and 2.6 rebounds per game as a sophomore. Dalbey had 12 points in a victory over Northern Illinois and 10 points and as many rebounds in a loss to Louisville. She averaged 4.9 points and 3.8 rebounds per game in her eight starts last season.

The lone returning sophomore is forward Amber Kirk, who scored four points against Cleveland State and three against Notre Dame in limited playing time as a freshman.

Seven players form the newcomer class for this season, including two who were at Wright State last season. Sophomore Heather Massengale sat out last season after transferring from Duquesne. As a freshman for the Lady Dukes during the 1993-94 season, Massengale led the team in three-point shooting percentage at .418 and averaged five points per game coming off the bench. The other, freshman guard Stacey Fifer, was redshirted last season.

Five freshmen make up the rest of this season's squad. Forward Beth Bartram averaged 21 points and 14 rebounds per game as a senior at Chapmanville (WV) High School while guard Carrie Bender scored 17.5 points and had 4.5 assists per contest for Canfield (OH) High School. Guard Demeka Brown was the Dayton City League Player of the Year for Meadowdale High School with her 18 point and five assist per game average and 6-1 center Emily Curtis from Bloomington (IN) South High School will provide depth inside. Forward Mindy Graham averaged 12 points and six rebounds per game for Ben Davis High School in Indianapolis as the team advanced to the Indiana Sweet 16.

"With only six players returning for us, our newcomers must make an immediate impact for us to be successful," said Hall.

The 1995-96 schedule contains many familiar names as only Miami and Morehead State are new to the schedule from last season. Both universities, however, are also familiar as the Raiders last faced Morehead State during the 1993-94 season and Miami during the 1992-93 campaign.

The MCC, after having 12 teams for women's basketball last season, will have nine in 1995-96—Butler, Cleveland State, Detroit, Illinois-Chicago, Loyola, Northern Illinois, Wisconsin-Green Bay, Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Wright State. Each team will play the other teams twice in a 16 game schedule.

The schedule also features local rivals Cincinnati and Dayton as well as Miami along with home games with Chicago State, Wichita State, Morehead State and Marshall during December.

"We have made the steady climb upward the past few seasons," said Hall. "I believe that climb will continue this season."

On October 3, 1995, the Raiders invited some of their friends—the Junior Raiders—to join them for photo day. For information on the Cap'n Bogey's Junior Raider Club, call Kim Grant of the WSU Athletic Department.

1994-95 SEASON REVIEW

The 1994-95 edition of the Wright State women's basketball team started hot in December in winning five straight, but cooled in January and February and finished 11-16 overall and 5-11 in its first season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. It was the second straight season that Wright State posted double figures in victories after not doing so since the 1988-89 season.

Wright State opened the season with a 67-49 loss at home to nationally ranked Western Kentucky. Lori Collins led the way with 13 points while Timothea Clemmer, in her first game as a Raider, came off the bench with eight points and collected 13 rebounds. WSU then picked up its first win of the season, 67-62, at home against former conference rival Youngstown State as Collins, Anita Jurcenko and Shelly Meadlo each scored 14.

A 67-56 win at Chicago State in the first road contest of the season was then followed by an emotional 67-60 win over Eastern Kentucky at the Nutter Center. Trailing 52-43 with 8:26 remaining, Wright State outscored ECU 12-2 over the next 5:10 and then hung on for their third straight win and their first ever over Eastern Kentucky in five tries. Timothea Clemmer scored a season high 28 points and had 12 rebounds to lead Wright State.

Following a fourth straight win, a 69-54 triumph at Cincinnati, the Raiders traveled to Wichita, Kansas, for the Pizza Hut Shocker Shootout, the first such tournament for WSU since the 1991-92 season. The team picked up its fifth straight win in defeating Pacific 75-58 in the opening round. Tied at 21 at halftime, the Raiders outscored the Tigers 54-37 in the second half to win by 17. Timothea Clemmer led the squad in scoring for the fifth straight game with 21 points along with a season high 16 rebounds.

The five-game winning streak was the second longest since Wright State joined Division I during the 1987-88 season and the 5-1 start was the best start for a WSU women's basketball team since the 1984-85 campaign.

The streak ended, however, as Wichita State defeated the Raiders 68-49 in the championship game. Lori Collins, who had 23 points and 17 rebounds in the two games, was named to the All-Tournament team. After the winning streak ended, Wright State would not win two straight again until the end of the regular season.

Wright State headed into conference play at 5-4 after losing 64-60 at Marshall despite having a 10-point lead at 55-45 with 4:23 remaining. Lori Blanchard scored a career high 16 points with five three pointers. The Raiders tied a team record with nine three pointers overall in the game and set a new mark with 25 three point attempts.

The first season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference did not start well for the Raiders as they dropped a 74-73 overtime decision at home to Detroit despite 23 points from Timothea Clemmer. 1995 started well for Wright State, however, as Clemmer's bank shot with one second remaining gave WSU a 73-71 victory over crosstown rival Dayton. The win broke a three-game losing streak overall, a three-game losing streak to the Flyers and was only the third win all time against Dayton.

The struggle in MCC games continued for Wright State as Notre Dame defeated the Raiders 76-41 in the Nutter Center in the first meeting ever between the two teams. WSU then lost 69-56 at La Salle before winning at Cleveland State 69-61 on January 14. Notre Dame then swept the season series from Wright State by a 67-48 score in South Bend, followed by a 83-70 loss to Xavier at home in the first of what would be three meetings between the Raiders and Musketeers.

Going into this season, Wright State had never defeated Northern Illinois in nine meetings with the average margin of defeat being 26 points to the Huskies. The Raiders, however, took the lead for good with 4:03 remaining and held on to defeat Northern Illinois by a 73-70 score on January 25. Timothea Clemmer scored 19 points while Lori Collins added 14, Michele Dalbey had 12 off the bench and Shelly Meadlo chipped in 11.

Wright State then had its highest point total of the season with 84, but it wasn't enough as Loyola picked up the 95-84 overtime victory in Chicago. Lori Collins had a career high 23 points and had 13 rebounds to lead the way. The Raiders then led for much of the first half at Butler before seeing the Bulldogs take a six-point halftime lead en route to a 69-58 victory. In that game, Collins became the eighth Raider to reach the 1,000 point mark for a career. The losing streak then reached four with a 56-50 loss at Illinois-Chicago and a 50-39 setback against Wisconsin-Green Bay at home as the Raiders shot only 29 percent from the field in the two games.

The streak came to a halt with a 69-35 win over Wisconsin-Milwaukee just 24 hours after falling to Wisconsin-Green Bay. The Raiders shot 50 percent from the field compared to just 12 percent for the Panthers in building a 42-14 halftime lead. Wright State shot 47 percent from the field overall compared to 20 percent for Wisconsin-Milwaukee as the Raiders picked up their third conference win of the season. The 35 points were the fewest given up by a Wright State since joining Division I and the fewest since the 1982-83 season.

WSU then suffered through another three-game losing streak as it began with a tough 57-55 loss at home to Louisville. The Raiders saw a 10-point halftime loss evaporate as the Cardinals held on to the lead over the last eight minutes for the win. Wright State then dropped a 69-59 decision at Xavier despite 17 points from Tracy Nixon and 13 from Jennifer Brigner, both coming off the bench. The final homestand of the year started with a 80-74 loss to La Salle despite 14 each from Connie Alig and Shelly Meadlo.

The Raiders, though, did end the regular season on a two-game winning streak. The five seniors went out in style in their final home game against Cleveland State as they combined for 47 points as Wright State led 47-28 at halftime en route to the 83-67 victory. Timothea Clemmer came off the bench on fire as she went 11 for 13 from the field in scoring 23 points. It was the first time that either team had swept the other in the season series since the two became conference rivals during the 1990-91 season.

The regular season ended as Wright State avenged an earlier overtime loss to Detroit with a 67-54 win on the road. The Raiders outscored the Titans 31-18 after the teams were tied at halftime at 36 in picking up their final win of the season. Timothea Clemmer, for the 12th time, led the way with 19 points.

The first-ever tournament game for Wright State in the MCC was a trip to Xavier to take on the Musketeers in a play-in game. The Raiders led by four early in the second half, but saw Xavier go on a 22-11 run midway through the half to take the lead for good in the 78-69 decision. Lori Collins closed out her career as she led the way with 17 points and nine rebounds.

Named as the Newcomer of the Year in the MCC was Timothea Clemmer as she finished 10th in the conference in scoring and seventh in rebounding. The Most Valuable Player honor was shared by seniors Lori Collins and Shelly Meadlo.

MIDWESTERN COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE

MCC Embarks On Its 17th Year

A little more than halfway through its second decade, the Midwestern Collegiate Conference is different from the way it has ever been. It is also very much the same. After experiencing membership realignment and refocusing its goals, the MCC is positioned to build upon an established foundation.

A new logo symbolizing the MCC's revitalization was unveiled last year, and a positive focus includes specific goals for improving the league's market and competitive position. The conference has increased its size by 50 percent over the last two years and now includes nine schools; after expansion in 1994, the MCC now features both public and private institutions. The result has been an affiliation of institutions with similar athletics goals that provides stability and major-market exposure.

MCC markets, including five of the country's top 30 television markets, now include nearly 10 million TV households and encompass roughly 10 percent of the nation's television audience. The member institutions are generally located in major metropolitan areas and benefit from the business, cultural, educational and entertainment resources available to the university community.

The "new" MCC is anchored in a solid tradition that began in 1979. Originally formed as a men's sports league, the conference added women's athletics in 1986-87. League members continue to advocate competitive athletics as a valuable educational experience and as an important component in the process of higher education.

Each institution is committed to fielding a broad-based NCAA Division I athletics program that develops physical fitness, academic development and moral character in its student-athletes. Among the MCC's established operating principles are efforts to enhance the student-athlete experience and to maintain integrity, gender equity, academic excellence and fiscal responsibility in the athletics enterprise.

Best known for its men's basketball success, the MCC offers a total of 16 different championship sports (eight for men and eight for women). The league enjoys NCAA automatic qualification or play-in access in men's basketball, women's basketball, softball and women's volleyball in addition to play-in access in baseball and men's soccer. The conference and its members have established ambitious goals for these "target priority" programs and continue to pursue national prominence in each. The MCC has also identified specific benchmarks for the continuation of its national basketball success and a position as one of the nation's top 10 Division I athletics conferences.

The MCC moved its offices to Indianapolis in 1985, where the league headquarters has contributed to the city's image as the "Amateur Sports Capitol of the World." In addition to many conference championships held in the city, the MCC and Butler University have co-hosted a number of high-profile NCAA events.

Among the most prominent is the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. The MCC, Butler and the city of Indianapolis hosted the Final Four in 1980 and 1991, and the three hosted first- and second-round action in 1987, 1989, 1990 and 1993. The tournament will be back to the RCA Dome in 1996 for this season's first and second rounds, and the Final Four spotlight will return in both 1997 and 2000. The MCC and Butler University will once again co-host the 1996, 1997 and 2000 events.

Commissioner Jon LeCrone, the league's third full-time chief executive, assumed the leadership baton in June 1992 and heads a six-person staff. Dr. Claire Van Ummersen, the president at Cleveland State University, begins her second year as the MCC president this fall, while CSU Athletics Director John Konstantinos chairs the conference's Executive Committee.

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

In the tradition of the nation's best universities, Wright State University is dedicated to teaching, research and service. In addition, as a metropolitan university near Dayton, Ohio, Wright State has the distinct mission of providing leadership to improve the quality of life for the people of the Miami Valley. Wright State's link to area business, community and research organizations in and around Dayton also offers unique educational opportunities to a diverse student body.

The university serves over 16,000 students with programs leading to more than 100 undergraduate and 40 graduate and professional degrees through six colleges and three schools. Wright State offers innovative educational programs, including doctoral programs in biomedical sciences, human factors and industrial/organizational psychology, medicine, and professional psychology; the nation's only aerospace medicine residency program for civilians; and a post-master's educational specialist degree program. Wright State's theatre, accounting, chemistry, geology, and engineering programs are recognized for excellence. The WSU Lake Campus near St. Mary's and Celina, Ohio, offers associate and pre-baccalaureate degrees.

Wright State University's faculty is dedicated not only to advancing the frontiers of knowledge but also to applying knowledge to real problems. Most classes are small and taught by fully affiliated faculty members, 80 percent of whom hold the most advanced degrees in their fields. In addition, students gain hands-on experience through a variety of community-based programs, cooperative education, internships, and research projects operated with industry and government.

Over 1,900 of Wright State's students live in university-affiliated residences on or adjacent to the 557-acre main campus. An extensive underground tunnel system links most campus buildings, whose modern architecture is nationally recognized for being completely accessible to people with disabilities. Although most students hold jobs on or off campus, many are involved in one or more of the 150 student clubs and organizations that give vibrancy to campus life.

The university offers 14 Division I intercollegiate athletic programs, and many students participate in intramural sports programs. The Ervin J. Nutter Center, a state-of-the-art sports and entertainment complex, and other recreational facilities are available to students on a daily basis. Besides intercollegiate athletic events, the Nutter Center hosts convocation, concerts, and other cultural and entertainment events, seating up to 12,000.

The University Libraries, consisting of the Paul Laurence Dunbar Library and the Fordham Health Sciences Library, are linked through the new OhioLINK system and Internet to holdings of other major academic libraries in Ohio and to a wide range of databases for electronic research. The Department of Archives and Special Collections includes an African American collection, as well as sections on the Wright brothers and early aviation history, local history, children's literature, and university history.

WRIGHT STATE'S PRESIDENT

Dr. Harley E. Flack

On February 1, 1994, Dr. Harley E. Flack became the fourth president of Wright State University. Wright State is located in Dayton, Ohio, and is dedicated to a metropolitan university mission.

Dr. Flack was previously provost and executive vice president at Rowan College of New Jersey (formerly Glassboro State College), from August 1989 until February 1994. During his tenure at Rowan, Dr. Flack led the strategic planning process for the college. He also had responsibility for developing Rowan's general education program, which was initiated in fall 1993; developing the teaching for learning center, as well as a program for the enhancement of faculty scholarship and research; developing a campus climate improvement initiative; creating a learning outcome assessment program; and expanding international programs.

Since Dr. Flack's arrival, Wright State University has continued its legacy of excellence in teaching, research and service. Through his innovative leadership, the university has launched an African American Male Mentoring Program designed to improve the quality of the educational experience for African American male students at Wright State. Recently, as a direct result of Dr. Flack's leadership, the state of Ohio included a line item for funding educational services to support students with disabilities; the National Education Association (NEA) selected Wright State's College of Education and Human Services as one of 18 partners in the Teacher Education Initiative of the NEA's National Center for Innovation; and, in collaboration with Sinclair Community College, Wright State established the Center for Healthy Communities to continue the efforts of the Partners for Community Health Development program servicing east and west Dayton. Dr. Flack has also taken strong leadership in forging a proactive and positive relationship between Wright State and Dayton public schools to improve collaborative efforts and to enhance educational opportunities for all children.

Dr. Flack has become a member of the Board of Trustees of the Dayton Art Institute, Area Progress Council, Greene Progress Council, and the Rotary Club of Dayton. He is also a member of the boards of National City Bank, Miami Valley Research Foundation, Miami Valley Research Institute, and the Kettering Medical Center.

Dr. Flack's scholarly activities include the publication of numerous articles and several books, e.g., African-American Perspectives on Biomedical Ethics, published by Georgetown University Press; Case Studies in Allied Health, a book soon to be published in collaboration with Dr. Robert Veatch, director of the Georgetown University Kennedy Institute of Ethics. Dr. Flack is past president of the National Society of Allied Health and served as a founding editor for its journal.

In addition to scholarly activities, Dr. Flack is a musician and composer. He recently published "The Goree Suite" tape, eight pieces for voice and African instruments. Dr. Flack has also composed more than 25 works for piano and voice, including "A Nation: All Families," which premiered at his presidential inauguration in October 1994.

Dr. Flack is the recipient of many honors that include Who's Who Among Black Americans; Order of the Shield, The Ohio State University; 1994 Distinguished Alumnus Award, Kent State University Alumni Association; 10 Top African American Males for 1994, Parity 2000, Dayton, Ohio; 1995 Distinguished Alumni Award, University of Buffalo State University of New York.

Dr. Flack received his bachelor of science degree in physical therapy from The Ohio State University, a master of arts in rehabilitation counseling from Kent State University, and a Ph.D. in counselor education from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Dr. Flack and his wife Mignon have four adult sons: Harley II, Oliver, Christopher, and Michael. Dr. and Mrs. Flack are first-time grandparents of Christopher Farrar Flack.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Dr. Michael J. Cusack

Growth and success has always been a major ingredient of Wright State athletics since Dr. Michael J. Cusack was named director of athletics in April of 1982.

One of the major forces behind the move to Division I, Cusack continues to press forward with several major projects, including the current construction of a baseball, softball and tennis complex beside the Ervin J. Nutter Center. In addition to assisting with the design of the athletic components and the move of the athletic department to the Nutter Center in 1990, Cusack formed the Director's Club, a committee of prominent business and community leaders who sold premium seats in the new arena. Besides the "giving" clubs formed under Cusack, he has shaped other programs such as Together Everyone Achieves More (TEAM), The Raider Hall of Fame, The Captain's Club and the Varsity "W" Club.

In 1986, he helped design and unveil Rowdy Raider, the first official mascot of the university. The mascot appears on wearing apparel, athletic letterheads and spirit items.

The university continues to present a well-rounded program under Cusack's leadership. The university offers seven sports for men and seven for women. The student-athlete concept has prospered under Cusack's leadership, stressing the importance of classroom success. TEAM has also instituted a drug education program designed to help diagnose and rehabilitate potential abusers. In addition, he designed a community awareness program that carries a "Say No to Drugs" campaign to area youth.

Success has been no stranger to Wright State athletic programs since Cusack's arrival. The men's basketball team competed in the Division I basketball tournament for the first time in 1993 after winning the Division II national championship in 1983 and making two other regional appearances in Division II, including the 1986 tournament that Wright State hosted. The men's and women's swim teams made appearances in the Top 10 at the NCAA Division II championships. The baseball team made its first appearance in the Division I regionals in 1994 after three regional tournament appearances in Division II, including a 1987 second-place finish at the Division II College World Series. Also in 1987, the women's basketball program earned its first regional tournament bid, and the golf team was selected for the NCAA championships four years after the sport was reinstated to varsity status.

Cusack came to Wright State after spending four years as the director of athletics at Mercyhurst College in Erie, Pennsylvania. His major achievement at Mercyhurst was guiding the school from NAIA to NCAA Division II membership. He also headed a project in 1981 to add a Division III football program. In its first year, the project sold more than 700 season tickets.

A native of Levittown, New York, Cusack earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education from Long Island University in 1964. He received his Master of Science degree in physical education from Queens College in 1969 and an Ed.D. degree in 1980 from New York University in administration of physical education and athletics.

Following graduation in 1969, Cusack spent nine years at Queens College as a member of the physical education faculty. He served as head baseball coach, assistant basketball coach and assistant athletic director. His baseball teams had a combined record of 65-27 with teams appearing in postseason tournaments each of the four years he was coach. He was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Honor at Queens in December 1986.

Cusack and his wife, Dorothy, live in Beavercreek. The couple have five children: Michael, David, Jennifer, Kristen and George. They have two grandchildren.

DAYTON

Where Innovation Meets Tradition

From the Wright brothers' first flight experiments in their Dayton bicycle shop to the invention of the first self-starting automobile ignition system by Charles F. Kettering, from the cash register to the automated teller machine, Dayton has a strong tradition of encouraging innovation, excellence, and service to humanity. Over 900,000 residents, four Fortune 500 companies, and Wright-Patterson Air Force Base call Dayton's metropolitan area home.

Dayton is a place that takes as much pride in historical preservation and parks as it does in high technology. Located in southwestern Ohio's Miami Valley at the confluence of the Great Miami, Stillwater, and Mad Rivers, Dayton is a picturesque combination of rolling hills, flowing waterways, and open spaces. Dayton boasts more green area than any U.S. city its size. Over 35,000 acres of parks, nature preserves, and other greenery beckon you to enjoy your favorite outdoor activities, and a popular river corridor along the Great Miami River offers 26 scenic miles of walking, jogging and cycling.

In the Heart of the Midwest

Dayton welcomes its visitors with big-city amenities and small-town, midwestern friendliness.

Dayton's central location among Columbus, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis puts major collegiate and professional sports activities, cultural events, and other recreational opportunities within easy driving distance. It's one of the nation's most accessible (and affordable) destinations. Chicago, Detroit, and Cleveland are all within a day's drive, and Indianapolis and Louisville are even closer. Cincinnati is just 54 miles away.

Each year, over 2.5 million people visit Dayton for business and pleasure. Over 100 festivals and the United States Air and Trade Show, a four-day celebration of flight, delight visitors from all over the nation. The U.S. Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, the oldest and largest military aviation museum in the world, has become the state's number one free visitor attraction.

Other notable places to see include the National African-American Museum and Cultural Center, the Museum of Natural History, the historic Wright Brothers Bicycle Shop, and Carillon Historical Park—a museum designated a National Historic Landmark by the National Park Service.

Dayton is strong in the arts. The Dayton Ballet Company is the nation's second-oldest regional company, and the Dayton Contemporary Dance Company is now in its 22nd year. The Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra has been performing for over 43 years, and the 73-year-old Dayton Art Institute houses an internationally acclaimed collection of paintings, sculpture, and decorative art spanning many cultures and time periods.

ON THE AIR

For the third straight year, three Wright State women's basketball games will be heard live on WONE-AM 980, a 5,000-watt station in Dayton. Those games are:

| | | |
|------------------------|-----------------|--------|
| Wednesday, December 13 | Cincinnati | 7 P.M. |
| Thursday, December 21 | Marshall | 7 P.M. |
| Wednesday, February 21 | Cleveland State | 7 P.M. |

Continental Cablevision Channel 30 in the Dayton area begins its second season of showing Wright State women's basketball games on a tape delay basis. The games will be shown on Sundays at 6 P.M. and Thursdays at 8 P.M. Those games are:

|------------------------|---------------------|
| Tuesday, November 28 | Miami |
| Friday, December 29 | at Dayton |
| Thursday, January 4 | Loyola |
| Saturday, January 13 | Wisconsin-Green Bay |
| Sunday, January 21 | Butler |
| Thursday, February 1 | Northern Illinois |
| Wednesday, February 21 | Cleveland State |

The MCC Championship game on Saturday, March 9 will be televised by SportsChannel.

MIDWESTERN COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE

THE ERVIN J. NUTTER CENTER

Wright State University's Ervin J. Nutter Center is a state-of-the-art entertainment and sports complex. The center features a 12,000 seat main arena, four basketball courts, a recreational running track, a multipurpose room, 60,000 square feet of exhibit space, and classrooms.

As an entertainment complex, the versatility of the Nutter Center has made it one of the premier stopping points for major tours. Such major acts as Frank Sinatra, Paul Simon, Gloria Estefan, John Mellencamp, the Oak Ridge Boys, Marie Osmond, Reba McEntire, two sold-out shows each of Guns 'N Roses and Neil Diamond, two shows of Hammer and Boyz II Men, ZZ Top, and a sold-out Garth Brooks have graced the stages as well as AC/DC, Michael Bolton, and INXS. The Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra has even made a return to the center. Such family show greats appearing at the center include Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus, Sesame Street, Lipizzaner Stallions, Moscow Circus, Ice Capades, World Cup Champions on Ice, and Nickelodeon's Super Sloppy Double Dare and Family Double Dare. Add to these such events as the Queens' Own Highlanders and Coldstream Guard, Bobby Knight, Dick Vitale, Greene County Business Expo and various high school events such as chemistry shows and clinics, and you have a facility that has proven to be an integral part of the community in just the few years it has been open.

Home of Wright State's men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams, as well as the entire athletic department's offices, the Nutter Center has been the sight of many spectacular sporting events. The center welcomed the 1991 Women's National Invitational Volleyball Championship and was the site of the 1993 National Junior Olympic Taekwondo Competition. The NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers have held three exhibition contests at the Nutter Center—in 1992 against the Charlotte Hornets, in 1993 against the Boston Celtics and in 1994 against the New Jersey Nets. Another Nutter Center highlight has been the three men's basketball conference tournaments that Wright State has or will host—in 1993 with the Mid-Continent Conference and in 1995 and 1996 with the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. The center has hosted high school events such as the Ohio State Wrestling and Volleyball Tournaments since 1991, district basketball and volleyball play and the Miami Valley Basketball Fest. The Nutter Center has achieved a reputation, both nationally and locally, as a site for high caliber sporting events and competitions.

The facility has been heavily booked from the day it opened, averaging approximately one million guests per year. The Nutter Center started off on a path of a variety of entertainment and sporting events that sold out or pushed capacity on a regular basis. For its capacity, the Ervin J. Nutter Center was ranked the second highest grossing facility in the United States and fourth in the world for ticket sales in 1993, according to Amusement Business trade magazine.
